

So, what is a complex sentence?

Adverbs/Adverbial phrases:

Whilst
Within seconds,
Moments later,
Unexpectedly,
Silently,
Violently,

Who/Which pronouns

-ing and -ed verbs:

Whistling through... Blinded by...
Moaning in the... Stunned by the...

Simple sentences:

The wind blew.
The sky grew dark.
A flash of lightning broke the sky in two.

Prepositions:

Behind
Through Under Below
In

Definitions of sentence structures:

Simple sentence: contains a subject (noun or pronoun) and a verb and has only one idea.

Compound sentence: contains at least one subject and a verb. It has two ideas joined by a conjunction.

Complex sentence: contains a subject and a verb. It has two or more ideas. It has a main clause and a subordinate clause.

So, what is a complex sentence?

Adverbs/Adverbial phrases:

Whilst
Within seconds,
Moments later,
Unexpectedly,
Silently,
Violently,

Who/Which pronouns

-ing and -ed verbs:

Whistling through... Blinded by...
Moaning in the... Stunned by the...

Simple sentences:

The wind blew.
The sky grew dark.
A flash of lightning broke the sky in two.

Prepositions:

Behind
Through Under Below
In

Definitions of sentence structures:

Simple sentence: contains a subject (noun or pronoun) and a verb and has only one idea.

Compound sentence: contains at least one subject and a verb. It has two ideas joined by a conjunction.

Complex sentence: contains a subject and a verb. It has two or more ideas. It has a main clause and a subordinate clause.